60 MINUTES

- 03/03/02 "Iraqi National Congress" - the INC (Iraqi National Congress), a London-based group, has been trying to overthrow Saddam Hussein for the last ten years and is currently waging a public relations campaign to get increased financial and military support from the Bush Administration. Includes interviews with Ahmed Chalabi, co-founder of the INC; Nabeel Musawi, a senior INC official; and Kenneth Pollack, an expert on the Iraqi military. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Richard Bonin)
- "A Sad Fact Of Life" - Dr. Robert Weitzel, a Utah psychiatrist was charged with the murders of five of his elderly patients. Dr. Weitzel claims that he prescribed morphine to ease the suffering of terminally ill patients. Includes interviews with Dr. Ira Byock, director of a program studying end-of-life care in the U.S., and Dr. Linda Finke, president of the International Society of Psychiatric-Mental Health Nurses, both of whom maintain that Dr. Weitzel was not guilty of any criminal act. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Helen Malmgren)
- "Hotel Pioneer" - in December 1970, a fire swept through the Pioneer Hotel in Tucson, Arizona killing 28 people. Louis Taylor, a 16-year-old African-American was arrested for setting the fire and convicted of 28 counts of murder. A recent examination of the evidence in the case shows no proof that Taylor was the arsonist. The Arizona Justice Project, an organization of lawyers, investigators, law professors and their students, is looking into the case. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Terrence L. Martin, Mark Stanoch)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "How's My Hair?" - hair makes a big difference in a person's appearance
- 03/10/02 "I.N.S." - a report on allegations of mismanagement, corruption, inefficiency and ineptitude within the INS (Immigration and Naturalization Service), the federal agency which plays a crucial role in the nation's first line of defense against terrorism. Includes interviews with George Terwilliger, former Deputy Attorney General; Stanley Mungeray, former INS inspector; Michael Bromwich, former Inspector General at the Justice Department; and Rep. Elton Gallegly of California. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Trevor Nelson)
- "Elaine Stritch" - an interview with the 77-year-old actress who is currently appearing in a one-woman play on Broadway. (C: Morley Safer - P: Steven Reiner)
- "The American Red Cross" - a report on allegations that the American Red Cross on a number of occasions, including the aftermath of the September 11 terrorist attacks, has not given victims all of the disaster relief aid raised in their name. Includes interviews with Art Agnos, former Mayor of San Francisco; Patty Cookson, Superior Court Judge in San Diego County; Dianne Jacob, San Diego County Supervisor; and Jack Godfrey, Red Cross Board of Directors. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Janice Tomlin)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Koppel & Letterman" - David Letterman may leave CBS
- 03/17/02 "John Nash's Beautiful Mind" -- an interview with Dr. John Forbes Nash, the Nobel Prize-winning economist and schizophrenic, whose life is the subject of the Academy Award-nominated film "A Beautiful Mind." Nash and his wife Alicia discuss rumors -- some say started by producers of competing films -- that Nash is anti-Semitic, a poor father and homosexual. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Peter Klein)
- "A Poisonous Stew" - followup to "The $12 Billion Clean Up" (OAD: 10/17/93), a report on the U.S. Government's efforts to clean up the hazardous waste resulting from its discontinued nuclear weapons program. The followup deals with the failure to construct secure vessels and storage facilities for 90 million gallons of liquid nuclear waste -- some of which is leaking -- despite having already spent billions on the effort. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Richard Bonin)

"Dame Judi" - an interview with actress Judi Dench, winner of five major acting awards in as many years, for movie and stage roles. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Ruth Streeter)
Andy Rooney: "In The News" - newspaper stories

- 03/24/02 "On The Waterfront" - despite heightened security following the events of Sept. 11, U.S. Customs can still inspect just two percent of the six million cargo containers entering the U.S. annually, making seaports and the final destinations of the containers all across America vulnerable to terrorist attacks. Includes interviews with former Coast Guard Commander Stephen Flynn; U.S. Coast Guard Admiral James Loy; Robert Bonner, U.S. Customs Commissioner; and Kevin McCabe, chief customs inspector at the combined port of Newark and New York. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Graham Messick)
"Malden Mills" - an interview with Aaron Feuerstein, owner of Malden Mills, a textile company in Lawrence, Ma., about the decision he made after a fire in the winter of 1995 destroyed his plant. Feuerstein continued to pay his workers and is determined to rebuild his business without leaving New England. (C: Morley Safer - P: Catherine Olian)
"One Horrific Day" - the massacre, on July 10, 1941, of thousands of Jews in Jedwabne, Poland has for years been attributed to the Nazis. The recent discovery of new evidence has stirred controversy because it indicates that the murders were actually committed by Poles who then took possession of property owned by the Jews they had killed. (C: Ed Bradley - P: David Gerber)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy's Movie Picks" - descriptions of movies in newspaper ads
- 03/31/02 "Ariel Sharon" - an interview with Prime Minister Ariel Sharon of Israel about the crisis in the Middle East -- his feelings toward Yasir Arafat and the Palestinians; the role of Iran in the Middle East conflict; and the impact of the Arab summit. The crime remained unsolved until recent evidence placed Ted Schiffer, a Pennsylvania man and his cousin Robert Zarinsky, the alleged killer, at the scene of the crime. At a subsequent trial Zarinsky was found not guilty for lack of evidence. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Lisa R. Cohen)
Charles Grodin: U.S. Government's terrorist alert system

48 HOURS

- 03/06/02 "Is It A Crime?"- viewers are asked to vote on CBS.com on four controversial court cases: Dr. Greg Messinger is facing murder charges for disconnecting the life support equipment which was keeping his severely premature child alive; Lori Palmer, a former police officer from Wichita, Kansas, was arrested for kidnaping and forcing a confession from a family friend who had sexually molested her daughter, Eden; Jenna Stricoff, a Raleigh, N.C. high school student drank vodka with a friend before going to school. School officials found out and expelled the girl, making it impossible for her to graduate before her terminally ill father dies; Debbie Jeffries, a Rocklin, California mother found that her eight-year-old son Jeff's severe, uncontrollable and violent behavior improved when she gave him medicinal marijuana. She was tried as an unfit mother in juvenile court where the case was dismissed. (C: Troy Roberts, Richard Schlesinger, Susan Spencer, Harold Dow - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Jay Young, Josh Gelman, Taigi Smith, Marc Goldbaum)
- 03/08/02 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "The Mystery Of Slide Mountain" - examines evidence and unanswered questions regarding a June 1, 1998 auto accident on Slide Mountain, near Reno, Nevada, that led to the death of Rinette Riella Bergna and left the driver, Rinette's husband Peter with only minor injuries. Bergna, who said he loved his wife despite marital difficulties, claimed that he had struggled to control the vehicle and remembered nothing of the accident or how he had been ejected before the crash. Rinette's family and the Nevada police had doubts about Peter Bergna's story. Based on evidence at the scene of the accident and the testimony of witnesses, he was tried for murder but was released on bail when a hung jury caused the presiding judge to declare a mistrial. A retrial is scheduled to begin in late April in Reno. (C: Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Peter Henderson, Paul Ryan)
